In accordance with the rules of this Court, the undersigned respectfully proffers the attached letter and assorted attachments to the Court, which was authored by an attorney who is not a member of this Court’s bar. This letter informs the Court that four legal scholars who specialize, inter alia, in matters of Executive Privilege are available for appointment, should the Court make a final decision to appoint a special master in this case. Neither the author of this letter, the scholars themselves, nor the undersigned take any position on the question of whether the Court should appoint a special master; this letter is purely presented for informational purposes.
